

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVROIR
INSTITUTE
and
McGill Centre for Research
& Teaching on Women

Presents

The State in Sexual Politics:
Australian Perspectives

ROBERT W. CONNELL

Professor of Sociology

Macquarie University

Past-president of the Sociological Association of Australia and New Zealand, Dr. Connell holds a Ph.D. in Government from the University of Sydney. His publications in the sociology of education and gender include 1) Making the Difference: Schools, families and social division, 2) Which Way Is Up? Essays on sex, class and culture, 3) Teachers' Work, and 4) Gender and Power: Society, the person and sexual politics. He has recently completed Feminism, Bureaucracy and the State. His current research interests include the social construction of masculinity - from surfers to airline pilots -, responses to AIDS, and the educational system's response to child poverty.

PLACE: Simone de Beauvoir Institute
2170 Bishop Street
Montreal, Quebec
Room: 101 Lounge

DATE: Monday
November 07, 1988

TIME: 2:00 - 4:00

For more information call 848-2373